and approved by the probation officer. Once the defendant is granted computer and internet access, he shall be subject to the conditions as set in the judgement on May 17, 2005, and the following conditions:

The defendant is permitted to possess or use a computer and is allowed access to the Internet. #### CAUSE

The probation officer believes that the action requested above to modify the conditions of supervised release is necessary for the following reasons:

As of the date of this filing, the defendant does not have a viable home plan. Placing the defendant at a residential re-entry center for up to six months will allow him to continue to seek employment and housing.

Additionally, based on the nature and circumstances of the offense, the imposition of a location monitoring condition for six months would allow the probation office to mitigate risks to the community and allow for the gradual re-entry into society by monitoring his location.

Lastly, the Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania has approved changes/updates in the sex offender, treatment and computer monitoring conditions which have been incorporated in this petition to aid in the rehabilitation of the offender, to protect children, and to deter future criminal activity.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
